Adjustment factors:

Applicable

There's no better way to prepare for the global workforce than to experience the world while you study. Combine one of 28 UTS courses with a Bachelor of International Studies and spend up to a year overseas.

Before you leave for the adventure of a lifetime, we'll make sure you're prepared with the intercultural skills and knowledge needed for your destination.

Our combined International Studies degrees enable you to learn a language (Chinese, French, German, Italian, Japanese or Spanish), deepen your understanding of the history and culture of your language choice, develop intercultural communication skills, and provide you the opportunity to study abroad and/or undertake an internship at an international organisation.

COURSE STRUCTURE

Students choose one of three options:

- Language, Culture & the Professional World: includes an internship and option of a short study abroad experience (2-6 weeks) overseas.
- Language, Culture & Global Exchange: includes an internship and a 6-month global exchange at any UTS partner university.
- 3. International Honours: includes a full year at a relevant overseas partner university where you will complete an honours level research project. You will undertake this 'embedded' International Honours in your fourth or final year of your degree, and graduate at the same time as your peers who are enrolled in the first two options.*

Students enrolled in the International Honours stream will be eligible for a generous reimbursement towards their international travel expenses and may be eligible for an OS-HELP loan. Those who travel on Global Exchange or a short study experience may apply for a competitive stipend and/or may be eligible for an OS-HELP loan.

LANGUAGES

Note: Honours students must undertake their honours year in a country corresponding with their language major.

- Chinese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Spanish

WHY INTERNATIONAL STUDIES AT UTS?

- UTS was the first university in Australia to offer International Studies as part of a combined degree, now running for nearly 30 years!
- Develop skills and attributes such as resilience, adaptability, independence, time and project management and critical thinking. These are in-demand skills that will help you stand out in your first interview
- Give your professional degree an international edge and gain the communication and intercultural skills required for a career overseas or in a multinational organisation
- Spend time studying at one of our 200+ partner universities around the world, or undertake a whole year of international study with the Honours program
- Build a network of global connections that you can draw upon throughout your personal and professional life

This course is flexible with different overseas study options.

*Students will submit an expression of interest for the honours year after Autumn results release in year 2. Students who maintain a credit point average weighted average mark (WAM) for their combined degree can opt into the honours and go on In-Country Study (ICS) in their fourth year. This study must be undertaken in a ICS partner university where the language of instruction is the language of the major.

Diploma in Languages

2023 Selection Rank:

N/A

Duration:

3 years part-time

The Diploma in Languages can be taken concurrently with undergraduate or postgraduate coursework degree program at UTS or another Australian university or as further learning.

Gain language and intercultural skills, build your professional identity, and graduate with a range of capabilities that'll prepare you for an international career. With this additional qualification, you'll open the door to your global future.

LANGUAGE OPTIONS:

- Chinese
- French
- German
- Italian
- Japanese
- Spanish

Norma Cooper Graduate

"Studying another language opens so many doors no matter what course you're studying. Combined with Business, it means I am able to work for a Japanese company or even work in Japan. What I've enjoyed most about the diploma is the challenge, as well as the friendships I've made along the way. The variety of tasks we are given, as well as the teaching style, makes it really enjoyable too."

STUDY PATTERN

This diploma may be taken concurrently with your UTS degree or as additional learning. You'll study one Diploma in Languages subject per session. For most UTS students, this will mean that enrolling in the Diploma will increase your load from 24cp per session (the standard full-time load for undergraduates) to 32cp per session. Overseas short-term study opportunities may also be available in July or Summer sessions.

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE SUBJECTS

You'll study language and culture subjects, completing one subject a session over a total of six sessions. You'll build capabilities in listening, speaking, reading and writing – and you'll also explore the popular culture, cultural practices and current affairs related to your chosen region. When it comes to class allocation, you'll be grouped according to your level of proficiency. No previous experiences in your chosen language? No problem – we've got classes to suit all levels.

WHY A DIPLOMA IN LANGUAGES AT UTS?

- Develop writing, speaking, listening and reading skills in at least one language other than English.
- Give your professional degree an international edge
- Get prepared to succeed in a range of international environments and to embrace globalised work opportunities
- Don't add time to your degree study a Diploma alongside your professional degree

ADMISSION AND APPLICATION

- For students without a bachelor's degree, the Diploma must be taken concurrently with another coursework program — it is not a standalone degree.
- Students who have completed a bachelor's degree at UTS or another university can undertake the Diploma as a standalone degree (one subject per session).
- Students with no prior language knowledge must commence in the Autumn session.
- Both current and prospective UTS students should apply for enrolment in the Diploma in Languages via My Student Admin.
   The link to the My Student Admin site is available on the Diploma webpage (please see the address below)
