

U@Uni Academy badge: Presentation

Congratulations on earning your Presentation badge. You have demonstrated 21st century skills – valuable skills that you will use as you move on to further study and work post-high school.

You can include this achievement in your portfolio and CV. Educational institutions, organisations and employers are looking for individuals with 21st century skills: highly valued qualities in our rapidly changing world and workforce.

When applying for post-school study, or your first job, you can use the following descriptions in your applications or interviews to demonstrate the skills you have gained. These are what you were assessed against in order to achieve your badge – so you have skills listed below – congratulations!

The person who has earned this badge has demonstrated 21st century oral presentation skills, which include: the capacity to speak with confidence and clarity in front of an audience; use storytelling techniques to capture the audience; convince listeners that their subject is important; and present the information in a logical and interesting way.

Badge criteria

- exercise clarity and precision of ideas
- present information relevant to audience
- build rapport and capture the audience's interest
- use verbal and non-verbal cues to compliment the ideas and information within a presentation