

UTS Prize Conditions of Award

Dame Mary Gilmore Memorial Prize in Journalism

Faculty of Arts & Social Sciences

This document sets out the conditions of award for the below prize ('Prize') and the obligations of recipients ('Recipient') and the University of Technology ('UTS') in regards to this Prize. The administrative processes to support awarding this Prize will be managed, and may be amended, in accordance with UTS Rules, Policy and Procedures.

1. PRIZE TITLE/NAME: Dame Mary Gilmore Memorial Prize in Journalism

2. PURPOSE

To reward outstanding academic performance to a female student in the UTS Master of Journalism program.

3. VALUE AND BENEFIT

3.1 Number of Recipients:

One (1) recipient will be awarded the Prize each academic year.

3.2 Benefit/s to Recipient:

The value of the Prize to the Recipient is $1,500.

3.3 Payment of benefit/s:

- The Recipient will receive one payment of $1,500 and will be the special guest at the Sydney Lyceum Club's annual event.
- A certificate of award will be presented to the Recipient at the Sydney Lyceum Club's event.

4. ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- Must be enrolled in a UTS Master of Journalism degree and has completed at least 48 credit points of the course at the time of award (equivalent to two-thirds of the course).
- Be a female student.

5. RECIPIENT SELECTION

The student will be selected based on their academic performance in the degree using the following criteria:

- Have completed at least 48 Credit Points (cps) of their UTS Master of Journalism degree (equivalent to two-thirds of the course).
- Has achieved the highest Weighted Average Mark in the degree at the time of award
- If there are two eligible students with the same WAM, the prize will be awarded to the student with the highest GPA. In the event that this is also identical, the final year of study WAM will be used as the deciding factor.
- Previous recipients are ineligible for the Prize

The successful recipient will be confirmed by the Head of Journalism and presented to the Sydney Lyceum Club who will invite them to speak at the Dame Mary Gilmore event.

7. OTHER CONDITIONS

N/A