UTS is very practical. At uni we created financial models, and deconstructed different businesses. That critical-thinking and problem-solving ability, I think, is the number one thing that I received from an Australian education.

UTS student accommodation

UTS student accommodation is called Yura Mudang. It's located on campus with food, shopping and transport options at your doorstep. Living in student accommodation means you'll be living with UTS students from Australia and across the world who can support you in your academic, social and personal growth.

UTS Housing is self-catered, secure and competitively priced. You can choose to live in either a self-contained studio or a bedroom within a shared apartment that has a shared kitchen, bathrooms and living areas. All bedrooms are for one person and are fully furnished, which means you'll just need to bring bed linen and cooking equipment. Yura Mudang also has spacious communal barbecue areas, study rooms, games and computer rooms, and even a music room! Rent includes electricity, water, unlimited cabled internet in bedrooms and wireless internet access in communal areas.

Renting private accommodation

Share accommodation means you usually have your own room and share a kitchen, living area and bathroom with other students or people who work. Alternatively, you can rent your own studio or one-bedroom apartment, but this is more expensive. Our off-campus accommodation website can help you search for share rooms in private houses and apartments around UTS: uts.studystays.com.au

It's a good idea to arrange short-term accommodation for when you first arrive in Sydney, then look for a long-term place to call home while you settle in. All accommodation rentals should come with a residential or tenancy agreement. If you need any help or advice, contact:

Simplified Student Visa Framework (SSVF)

UTS participates in the Australian Government's Simplified Student Visa Framework (SSVF) and recruits students into its degree courses under the SSVF arrangements of the Department of Home Affairs. The SSVF is designed to make the process of applying for a student visa simpler for genuine students.

As an international student, you should apply for a single student visa (subclass 500) regardless of your chosen course of study. When you are granted a visa under SSVF, you must continue to maintain enrolment in an eligible course and continue to have sufficient financial capacity to support your study and stay in Australia.

All student visa (subclass 500) holders must maintain enrolment at the same or higher Australian Qualification Framework (AQF) level for which they were granted a visa. If you are undertaking a doctoral degree (AQF10) or transferring to a master degree (AQF9), this condition does not apply. In all other circumstances, transferring to a lower AQF level course or transferring from an AQF level course to a non-AQF Award course is a breach of the student visa condition and might result in cancellation of your visa.

You must take this important information into account when choosing a course and when considering a course change or a move to another provider.

For more information about student visas, visit the Department of Home Affairs website: homeaffairs.gov.au

Tuition fees

Tuition fees vary between UTS courses and must be paid in advance of each session. Textbooks and other course materials are additional expenses.

The fees for any session are determined by the number of credit points being undertaken in that session. Unless noted, the quoted session tuition fee assumes you will enrol in a standard 100 per cent credit point load for your chosen course, which is normally 24 credit points per session. Your actual session course cost may differ from this figure depending on the course and the number of credit points taken per session.

Fees listed are correct for 2025 only and are subject to an increase each calendar year.

For the most up-to-date information about tuition fees for UTS courses and the UTS Fees and Refund Protocol, visit: uts.edu.au/study/international/essential-information/fees-information

Student services and amenities fee

Australian universities charge a Student Services and Amenities Fee (SSAF) to support the maintenance of a range of student services at universities. At UTS, the SSAF provides support to Students' Association sponsored activities. This includes the second-hand bookstore, services for skills and language development, the UTS Student Legal Centre, food, beverage and retail outlets, and student clubs run by Activate UTS.

The SSAF is applicable to all students at UTS. You are required to pay it in Autumn and Spring sessions in which you are enrolled. Your liability for the SSAF is based on your enrolled study load as at the census date. Students withdrawing after the census date are not eligible for a refund or remission of this fee.

In 2024 SSAF fee is A$175.50 per session for full-time students (those with a study load of 18 credit points and above per session). The SSAF is subject to an annual government set indexation increase.

For further information go to:

Health cover

You are required to arrange Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the entire time that you are in Australia on a student visa. OSHC is insurance to assist international students to meet the costs of medical and hospital care that they may need while in Australia. OSHC will also pay limited benefits for pharmaceuticals and ambulance services.

You may purchase OSHC from an authorised provider of your choice or UTS's preferred provider. The cost of cover may differ between insurers and the plan you choose. It is a visa condition, and your responsibility as a student, to purchase and maintain this health cover throughout your stay in Australia. You will need to submit evidence of your OSHC arrangements when you lodge your visa application with the Department of Home Affairs.

Note: Students from Belgium, Norway and Sweden who have health cover in their home countries may be exempt from OSHC.

Recognition of prior learning (credit recognition)

Your prior learning may be considered for credit towards a UTS graduate coursework program where the prior learning is related to assessable components of the course. For example, you may be granted:

- exemption from studying a specific subject within your UTS course if you can prove that you have previously studied a subject equivalent to a required UTS subject
- general advanced standing for a specific number of subjects if you can prove your prior studies are relevant to your UTS course, but do not directly correspond to specific subjects in the course and
- automatic credit if the subject and version required for your current course has been completed as part of another UTS course.

Note: Determination of eligibility for recognition of prior learning towards a particular course does not imply or guarantee that a place is available in that course.

APPLYING FOR RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING

You can apply for recognition of prior learning in your International Student Application form.

The following documents must be attached to your application:

1. certified copy of academic transcript(s)
2. copies of official subject outlines

For each subject exemption sought, you must provide a subject outline with the following details:

- year the subject outline is relevant to (this must be the same year in which you passed the subject)
- topics covered in the subject
- number of hours of class time
- method of assessment used
- textbooks required.

A paragraph from an institution's calendar or handbook is not sufficient. Inadequate outlines will not be accepted.

Subject outlines must be in English. If subject outlines have been translated into English, they must be certified and stamped as translated by a professional translator.

Cost of living

The Department of Home Affairs requires international students to demonstrate that they have access to at least A$29,710 a year (excluding course fees) to fund their living costs in Australia - this number increases if you are bringing a partner or dependants.

However, at UTS, we believe that you should have access to A$29,710 to A$37,037 to support yourself during your studies.

To help you estimate your expenses according to your lifestyle, the Australian Government has created a cost of living calculator:

studyaustralia.gov.au/english/live/living-costs

For more information about finding accommodation and housing in Sydney, see pages 22-23.

Admission: the process of applying for a course or program at UTS, then being made an offer of admission, accepting that offer, and being admitted to study at UTS.

Advanced standing: see Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).

Campus: the university grounds including the buildings.

Combined degree: the opportunity to study two programs from different academic areas at the same time and graduate with two degrees.

Course: an award course, non-award study or any part of a program of study offered by UTS, e.g. Master of Business.

Credit point: the unit of measure of workload for individual subjects (allocated based on the amount of work required in that subject). Credit points are gained by students enrolled in award courses when subjects are passed. When accumulated, credit points form one measure of the total requirements of a course. Most subjects at UTS are 6 or 8 credit points each.

Credit recognition: see Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL).

CRICOS code: CRICOS stands for Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students. The CRICOS code is an official code given to a course and institution to confirm that it is registered to be offered to international students.

Distance mode: a teaching method that does not require students to attend classes on campus. Instead, distance mode students access their subject materials online. International students undertaking distance mode courses cannot obtain a student visa to study the course in Australia.

Electives: some courses allow you to choose elective subjects outside your core study area as part of your course. Not all electives are available each session. Due to timetabling, you may not always get your first choice electives.

English language requirements: To be eligible for admission into a course, you must demonstrate proficiency in written and spoken English if your previous education was not conducted in English. Please see page 48 for specific English language requirements for each course. These are subject to change.

Fees: are charged per credit point. The cost of each credit point will depend on the course you are studying (see uts.edu.au/study/international/essential-information/fees-information for the most up-to-date information on fees). The fees in this course guide have been calculated based on a 24 credit point session in 2025, unless otherwise stated.

Lectures: classes that are taught in large groups, usually conducted in lecture halls or online. The lecturer will provide students with course material, which is often later discussed and debated in smaller tutorial groups.

Major: an area you choose to specialise in during your studies. Your course will be structured around a sequence of subjects that form this major. Students can choose other unrelated subjects to undertake in conjunction with major subjects, but cannot graduate unless the criteria of their chosen major is met.

Pre-requisite: one or more units of subject/s, specified by the faculty board that a student must already have completed before being eligible to enrol in a particular unit or course.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL): (also known as 'advanced standing', 'credit recognition' and in some cases referred to as 'exemption' or 'credit') is the granting of credit to students for their previous learning for credit towards a course. For more information, please go to page 52.

Sessions: the blocks of time during which classes run on campus. At UTS, an academic year has three sessions: Autumn, Spring and Summer. For academic calendar dates, see page 73.

Sub-major: a group of subjects which, alongside the major, will form the structure of your course. The sub-major works the same way as your major in that there will be a specific number of required credit points that need to be met.

Subjects: units that cover different areas within your chosen course. They are a combination of core subjects (these are compulsory) and electives.

Subject outline: an official document that represents the statement of subject requirements that is authoritative for both the university and the students undertaking the subject. It includes details of the minimum essential requirements necessary to pass the subject, material and equipment that may be taken into an examination and may prescribe attendance and/or participation requirements. All students should receive a subject outline for every subject in the first week of class.

TEQSA: the Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency. It's Australia's independent national quality assurance and regulatory agency for higher education.
