“I was looking for a good university with a younger vibe and when I searched, UTS came up, so I chose UTS. The culture is interesting and diverse. It's a pretty multicultural country. The city is bigger, the buildings cleaner. And Sydney has good beaches!

The students here are very different from the students in my country in a lot of ways. I've learnt a lot from them. I can teach my friends Portuguese, too, and I have some Spanish friends who can understand me when I speak it. ”

World-class campus

At UTS, we have built a dynamic and interconnected campus of the future, with award-winning buildings, state-of-the-art facilities and sustainable design. We've got tech-driven, purpose-built spaces that'll inspire you to learn, as well as spaces for industry collaboration.

When you're not in class, take advantage of our many student spaces, relax on the Alumni Green, and enjoy our central location close to Sydney's city centre. We are also within walking distance of Central Station, Sydney's main transport hub.

Practical and collaborative learning

We're committed to hands-on practical learning – theory is great, but applying what you learn is crucial to your success.

Major projects, group work and real-life case studies are key to our practice-based approach, and they'll give you the skills you need to impress future employers.

Industry connections

How do we know what employers want? We ask them. We've put a lot of work into building extensive industry connections – 150 at last count – with organisations across a range of professional sectors.

Our industry partners help us shape our course content. They also provide guest lectures, internships, scholarships and prizes. So everything you study reflects the real world of work.

Programs

We're a university for the real world. All our innovative courses are closely aligned with industry need, so you learn will prepare you for your future career.

With more than 130 undergraduate and 180 postgraduate courses across emerging and traditional disciplines, UTS has a course for everyone.

Location

UTS is Sydney's city university. We are located in the heart of one of the world's great and most liveable cities*, surrounded by Sydney's creative and digital industry precincts.

Rankings

“When I chose UTS, I was looking for a top world-class university in one of the most liveable cities in the world and therefore, UTS was a no-brainer for me. The most interesting part about studying online was the workshops where we got to interact with the lecturers and students from all over the world.”

Katelyn Barkhuizen
